2018 UTAH VOLLEYBALL OUTLOOK

UTAH VOLLEYBALL

2018 SEASON OUTLOOK

Lauga Gauta and Berkeley Oblad will be the seniors for the 2018 season.

Coming off one of the best seasons in program history that saw Utah win 24 matches and reach the Sweet 16, the Utes are ready to get back on the court for the 2018 season.

The Utes tallied a 24-10 overall record and notched their best Pac-12 record in program history going 13-7 finishing in fourth place during the 2017 season. The program made its 14th appearance in the NCAA tournament and won the Salt Lake City Regional to advance to the Sweet 16 for the third time.

With all of the success last year, there will be a different look to this team after losing three seniors that totaled 60 percent of the teams kills. Adora Anae was a staple over the last three seasons totaling over 500 kills in each of those seasons. The two-time AVCA All-American is currently playing professionally in Korea.

With great players leaving it allows other players to step up and that's one of the more exciting things heading into the 2018 season.

"The exciting part is someone is going to step up," head coach Beth Launiere said. "It's wide open for our team in terms of opportunity. We did lose a tremendous amount of our offense between Adora, Tawnee and Carly, but we have some juniors and seniors with a lot of experience as well as Kenzie and Dani starting as freshmen on a Sweet 16 team."

In all, the Utes return seven players from that Sweet 16 team including their AVCA All-American (honorable mention) middle blocker, starting setter, starting libero and both starting right sides.

Middle blocker Berkeley Oblad was third on the team with 300 kills and second on the team with 142 blocks. Along with being named honorable mention for being an AVCA All-American, she was also named AVCA All-Pacific South Region honorable mention as well as All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

Setter Bailey Choy enters her junior season having started 62 matches her first two seasons in a Ute uniform. A season ago she totaled 1,241 assists and finished seventh in the Pac-12 averaging 9.47 assists per set and was named to the Pac-12 All-Academic Second Team.

Libero Brianna Doehrmann was named to the Pac-12 All-Academic First Team after leading the team with 398 digs. Her 3.40 digs per set ranked ninth in the Pac-12.

Another thing that will help is for the second year in row, Utah's recruiting class was tabbed as top 30 in the nation by Prepvolleyball.com with three freshmen coming in along with two college transfers. The class includes two players ranked in the top 50 in the country as Kennedi Evans was ranked 23rd and Megan Yett was ranked 41st. Saige Ka'aha'aina-Torres was named the Star Adviser Hawaii Player of the Year and was also an Under Armour All-American.

"We have some freshman that have a shot this year," Launiere said. "I'm very excited about Saige and Megan Yett is a legit six-rotation outside hitter. She is a really great passer with a real natural feel for the ball. Then, Kennedi is a force at the net, both blocking and attacking."

As the Utes look to fill out their lineup, they have a tough schedule that has them playing 12 NCAA Tournament teams from a season ago. Utah will play 14 home contests and will have 16 of its matches televised.

The season begins in the Huntsman Center hosting the Utah Volleyball Classic against UC Irvine, St. Mary's and Denver.

After hosting the opening weekend, Utah will have two more non-conference tournaments on the road. The second weekend, the Utes will travel to Missoula, Montana for the Montana Invitational.

To round out the non-conference tournament schedule, the Utes will play against Villanova, Temple and High Point in the Villanova Invitational.

Utah will close out the non-conference campaign against a pair of local rivals, first taking on BYU in Provo on Thursday, Sept. 13, and then returning home to host Utah Valley on Friday, Sept. 14.

"Our non-conference schedule is a mix of traditional opponents, as well as a few programs we have not played as often," said Launiere. "The common denominator is that they are all quality programs and will prepare us well for the rigors of a tough Pac-12 schedule."

Utah will have to open Pac-12 play on the road this season, as the Utes travel to Boulder, Colo., to take on Colorado on Wednesday, Sept. 19. The Utes return home to host UCLA on Friday, Sept. 21, which will mark the only contest between the Utes and Bruins this season. Utah returns to the road the following week to take on both Washington State (Sept. 28) and Washington (Sept. 30).

Utah will open the first two weeks of October with four straight matches at the Huntsman Center. The Utes, who went 12-4 at home last season, will first take on the Bay Area squads, hosting Stanford (Oct. 5) and California (Oct. 7), and then taking on the Oregon schools that following week, meeting up with Oregon State (Oct. 11) and Oregon (Oct. 14).

A road trip to the desert to take on Arizona State (Oct. 19) and Arizona (Oct. 21), is followed by a pair of home contests against Washington State (Oct. 24) and Washington (Oct. 26), giving Utah a total of six home matches in the month of October.

The Utes will be forced to play five of its final eight matches of the regular season on the road though, as the Utes travel to the Bay Area to face California (Nov. 2) and Stanford (Nov. 4) the very first week of November. Followed by a pair of matches against Arizona (Nov. 9) and Arizona State (Nov. 11), Utah hits the road for three straight the following two weeks, taking on Oregon (Nov. 14), Oregon State (Nov. 16) and USC (Nov. 21).

Utah will have the luxury of wrapping of the 2018 season at home, hosting Colorado the Friday after Thanksgiving (Nov. 23).

"The Pac-12 Conference schedule is going to be the normal gauntlet of nationally ranked opponents," said Launiere. "I believe it will be as competitive as it's ever been with all 12 teams battling, night-in and night-out."

In all, The Pac-12 has seven teams ranked in the AVCA Preseason Coaches poll matching the Big Ten for the most by a conference in the poll.

Utah was voted No. 19. It is the second season in a row and seventh time in program history that the Utes have been ranked in the preseason.

The Pac-12 coaches picked the Utes to finish in eighth place.

HEAD COACH
29TH SEASON
AQUINAS, '85

545-346 (.611)

Beth Launiere, who has more than 540 career victories to her name, enters her 29th season at the helm of the Utah volleyball program in 2018. Launiere has registered a total of 545 career victories, 251 conference wins and an all-time winning percentage of .611, and all of these marks rank first among Utah volleyball's coaching records.

One could argue that the 2017 season could be the best-ever under Launiere, as she guided the Utes to a 24-10 overall record, a 13-7 mark and a fourth-place finish in Pac-12 play, and a 14th NCAA Tournament appearance.

The 24 victories were the most in a single season since Utah tallied 26 victories back in 2008, while the 13 conference wins were the most since joining the Pac-12 in 2011. The fourth-place finish was Utah's highest in the Pac-12 standings, as well.

Utah earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament and was named the No. 11 overall seed in the tournament – Utah's highest seeding in school history – and earning the right to host the first two rounds of the championship tournament. The Utes would defeat Cleveland State in straight sets in the first round of the tournament and then propelled its way to the Sweet 16 with a 3-1 win over Purdue in the second round.

Utah made its third appearance in the Sweet 16 overall, and the team's first since 2008. The Utes would travel to Palo Alto, Calif., to take on No. 2-ranked Texas, giving the Longhorns all they could handle. Texas opened the match with a first-set victory, but Utah came back to win the next two frames and take a 2-1 lead. Texas countered with a four-point victory in the fourth set and would eventually win the match, but not after Utah forced the Longhorns to win in a nail-biter (16-14).

The Utes would finish the season ranked No. 11 in the final AVCA Coaches Poll, marking the program's best finish in the AVCA poll, surpassing the previous No. 15 ranking it recorded back in both 2001 and 2006. The No. 11 ranking was Utah's highest ranking in the poll overall, since coming in at No. 11 back on Nov. 27, 2006.

Launiere was instrumental in three players earning AVCA All-American honors in 2017, which included the program's first-ever first team selection in senior Adora Anae. Tawnee Luafalemana and Berkeley Oblad would go onto earn honorable mention accolades, giving Utah three All-Americans in the same season for the first time since 2006.

In 2016, Launiere guided Utah to its 13th NCAA Tournament appearance after going 20-12 overall and finishing in fifth-place in a very competitive Pac-12 Conference race. Launiere posted her 16th 20-win season at the helm of the Utah program, while silencing the critics in league play. Picked to finish eighth in the Pac-12, Utah managed to record a program-best 11 wins in Pac-12 play, which included seven victories on the road.

Utah went 10-3 in road games overall, notching the most road wins in a single season since going 10-4 as a member of the Mountain West Conference back in 2008. The Utes also managed to record six wins over AVCA Top-25-ranked team, setting a new program record for victories over ranked opponents in a season.

Led by AVCA All-American, Anae, Utah earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, but fell to UNLV in four sets in the Provo, Utah, Regional. Despite the first-round exit, Launiere and the Utes would bring back a ton of talent, along with what PrepVolleyball.com called a "sleeper" recruiting class in 2017.

Under Launiere's Tutelage, Anae rewrote the school record books - breaking her own single-season mark for kills in a single-season - collecting 592 kills during the 2017 campaign. Anae became the first player in school history to register 500-plus kills in multiple seasons, while earning back-to-back All-Pac-12 First Team honors. Luafalemana, a junior at the time, earned All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention accolades playing in her first season with the Utes.

Utah cracked the AVCA Top-25 rankings a total of 10 different weeks, which included Utah coming in at No. 25 overall in the final AVCA poll. The 10 weeks ranked inside the polls were Utah's most weeks ranked since collecting a weekly ranking all 16 weeks back in 2006. Utah was ranked as high as No. 16 back on Nov. 14. It was the program's highest polling since joining the Pac-12 Conference in 2011. It also marked Utah's highest ranking since coming in at No. 16 in the final AVCA poll back on Dec. 23, 2008.

In a rebuilding season for the Utes in 2015, Launiere helped guide a very young, but talented squad to 10 victories, which included the head coach collecting her 500th career win. All 501 of her career coaching victories have come while leading the Utes. Launiere notched her 500th career victory on Nov. 1, 2015, with a 3-1 win over Oregon State.

"To get career win No. 500, it really is just a true testament to the program and the great players we have had come through here," said Launiere. "All of the wins have been great. There have been a lot of big wins and I am just glad to be a part of such a great program."

Utah went 10-21 overall in 2015, with a 4-16 mark in Pac-12 Conference matches. The Utes relied heavily on the play-making skills of sophomore Anae, who set the school record for kills in a single match during the rally-scoring era (28) and the record for kills in a single-season (501). Anae went on to earn First-Team All-Pac-12 honors, while freshman Berkeley Oblad was tabbed a Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention selection.

The Utes went 20-13 in 2014, which included a school-record six victories over top-25 ranked teams. After opening Pac-12 play with just two wins in the first 12 matches, Launiere's squad turned its entire season around, winning seven of its last eight regular-season matches. Utah went on to advance to the NCAA Tournament for a second straight season and defeated Kansas State in the first round before falling to regional host Nebraska in five sets.

The 2013 squad made its first postseason appearance since 2008 after going 20-12 in the regular season and posting nine victories in the always-tough Pac-12 conference. Utah downed Yale in four sets in the first round of the NCAA Tournament before falling to eventual national champions, Penn State, in the second round.

Launiere (501-324, .607) completed her 26th year at the helm of the Utah volleyball program in 2015 after taking over in 1990, when she looked to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In 26 years, Launiere has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power. The Utes have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 12 times, won six Mountain West Conference titles (regular season and tournament combined) and have recorded 15, 20-win seasons.

Launiere has earned plenty of recognition as the leader of the Utes, she was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year three times (2001, `06, `08) and the MWC Coach of the Year (2004, `06, `08) on three occasions, as well.

Launiere's ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided seven Utes to All-America honors while 11 have garnered all-region accolades. The 2011 freshman class was ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com, while the 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best by Volleyball Magazine.

Launiere's accomplishments earned her the opportunity to serve as an assistant coach for the Pac-12 All-Stars in June of 2013, where she toured China with 13 of the Pac-12 best volleyball players, including current Ute right-side hitter Shelby Dalton.

Launiere also coached for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia last July and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for five years.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reach new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 12 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament 10 times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001 and 2008. In 2001, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a set against the Cardinal during the tournament. In 2008, the Utes swept Furman and host Clemson in the first two rounds before being defeated by Washington in Seattle.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

In addition to seven AVCA All-Americans, most recently Shelby Dalton was selected to the AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and All-Pacific North Region First team in 2013, while Erin Redd-Brandon received AVCA Pacific North Region honorable mention. Redd-Brandon was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2013 and 2012, while Chelsey Schofield-Olsen earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition in 2011 and Tess Sutton was honored in 2013.

Seventeen of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 13 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Before Dalton played with the Pac-12 All-Stars in China a few summers back, many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic Development programs. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including former players Dalton, Schofield-Olsen, Morgan Odale, along with Turner, Salvo, Toone, Baird, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson, Danielle Killpack, Abby Simmons and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
FOURTH SEASON

Malia Shoji will enter her fourth season with Utah volleyball program in 2018. Shoji was elevated to associate head coach in February 2018 after serving as an assistant coach her first three seasons with the team.

She was promoted after working with the offense on one of the best teams in Utah volleyball history. The 2017 team won 24 matches and advanced to the programs third NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 appearance.

The team set single-season offensive records in kills (1,886) and assists (1,786) while finishing third in hitting efficiency at .252 in the rally-scoring era.

Along with the team putting up big offensive numbers, senior Adora Anae once again eclipsed the 500-kill mark finishing with 547 on the season. The senior outside hitter became the first Utah volleyball player to be named an AVCA First Team All-American and the second player of all-time to earn All-American honors twice under Shoji's tutelage.

Shoji has also been the teams recruiting coordinator the past three seasons. The past two seasons the Utes have signed a top-30 recruiting class according to PrepVolleyball.com, including the 11th ranked class in 2017. The 11th ranking was the highest in program history.

Following her first season with the Utes, Shoji was named an assistant coach for the Pac-12 Volleyball All-Star Team that toured China in the summer of 2016.

Shoji made the move to Salt Lake City after serving as an assistant coach under Brad Saindon at Western Oregon University, a NCAA Division II and Great Northwest Athletic Conference member, since 2012.

While working at WOU, Shoji assisted in the planning and execution of player development, was WOU's primary recruiting coordinator, assisted in off-season training and oversaw video/statistics analysis, as well. She coordinated team travel, initiated fundraising efforts for the volleyball program and was the Wolves' primary camp director. In Shoji's first season with the Wolves, the squad finished the campaign with a 21-6 overall record and finished in second-place in the GNAC with a mark of 14-4.

Prior to her stint with the Wolves' program, Shoji was an assistant coach with Willamette University in 2011 where she helped establish the Capital City Elite Volleyball Club and served as the Director of Business Operations.

Shoji's coaching experience also includes serving as lead coach for the Gold Medal Squared Volleyball Camps (2012-14), head junior varsity coach at La Jolla Country Day School (2008-10), head coach for the La Jolla Volleyball Club (2008-09) and head coach at Saddleback Valley Volleyball Club (2007).

Shoji, who played collegiately at Irvine Valley College from 2005 to 2007), hails from a family that is no stranger to the sport of volleyball. Shoji's dad, Tom, has been a volleyball coach at the NCAA level for more than 30 years. Her uncle, Dave, has been the head coach at Hawai'i 40 years and during that time he has accumulated 1,150 victories, which currently ranks second all-time in career wins. Shoji's cousins, Kawika and Erik, play professionally for the Berlin Recycling Volleys and both players are members of the USA Men's National Team, as well.

Shoji earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications from the University of California -- San Diego in 2009 and her Master of Science degree in Education, Information Technology from Western Oregon this spring. While attending IVC, she has earned an Associate's Degree in Business Administration.

DAN COROTAN

ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON

Dan Corotan was named Utah's new assistant volleyball coach in March 2018 and will enter his first season with the Utes this fall.

Corotan makes the move to Salt Lake City following a three-year stint at nearby Utah Valley, where he helped guide the Wolverines to a 45-44 overall record and 28-14 mark in Western Athletic Conference (WAC) play. He was instrumental in UVU's taking second place in the WAC in 2016, which was the program's highest league-finish in school history.

In his first season with the Wolverines, Corotan coached UVU's first-ever WAC Freshman of the Year in Abby Jensen and then just a few seasons later helped guide Madison Dennison to 1.65 blocks per set, which ranked No. 2 overall in the nation. The Wolverines finished this past season ranked No. 8 in the nation in blocking, averaging 2.98 blocks per set. UVU ranked No. 7 in the nation in 2016 with 2.96 blocks per set.

In his time with UVU, Corotan was also responsible for creating recruiting content, plans and strategies. He managed film sessions on both an individual and team basis, while also breaking down statistical analysis on a daily basis. Prior to his being named assistant coach in 2015, Corotan served as the team's video and stats coordinator.

Corotan also has coaching experience at the club level having coached various boys and girls teams at the club level around Utah. He also coached a variety of camps and clinics, including Avid Volleyball and Global Medal Squared camps.

Corotan, who graduated from BYU in 2014 with a degree in Korean, hails from Los Alamitos, California, where he was a standout volleyball player at Los Alamitos High School. During his playing days, Corotan was named third-team All-Sunset League after leading his team to the Sunset League title. He also played for LBC at the club level, where he helped his squad take second at nationals en route to being named to the all-tournament team. Corotan also gained experience in the sport playing at the beach volleyball level for several years.

@UTAHVOLLEYBALL

UTES PICKED TO FINISH FOURTH IN PAC-12

Utah earned its highest preseason finish since joining the Pac-12 back in 2012, coming in at No. 4 in the 2017 preseason coaches' poll. The Utes garnered one first-place vote in the poll for a total of 88 points. Washington was picked to win the league, while Stanford and Oregon followed to round out the top-three.

ANAE NAMED TO ALL-PAC-12 PRESEASON TEAM

Adora Anae was named to the All-Pac-12 Preseason Team for a second straight season. Anae, who enters her senior season with the Utes, was an All-Pac-12 First Team selection following the 2016 season. She led the league in kills (592), kills-per-set (4.70) and points-per-set (5.22).

UTES NOTCH PROGRAM-BEST 13 PAC-12 VICTORIES

Utah finished the Pac-12 campaign at 13-7 overall, registering the program's most Pac-12 victories in a season since joining the league in 2011. The Utes surpassed last season's win total of 11 victories, which was the most conference wins a Utah team had earned as a member of the Pac-12.

The 13 conference wins are also the most the program has recorded since going 14-2 in the Mountain West Conference back in 2008. Utah's 22 regular season wins are the most since notching 24 wins, which also came back in 2008

Utah's fourth place finish in the Pac-12 is the highest finish since joining the league in 2011. The Utes' previous best mark was finishing in a tie for fifth place last season.

ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

Senior outside hitter Adora Anae, senior middle blocker Tawnee Luafalemana, senior outside hitter Carly Trueman and junior middle blocker Berkeley Oblad were each named to the 2017 All-Pac-12 Volleyball Team, the league office announced on Tuesday.

Anae was tabbed a first team selection for a third consecutive year, while Luafalemana, Trueman and Oblad earned honorable mention accolades. This is first honor for both Trueman and Oblad, while Luafalemana was named honorable mention for a second straight season.

Anae becomes the first Utah player to earn three consecutive All-Pac-12 Conference honors and becomes the first Ute to earn three consecutive first team honors since Karolina Bartkowiak was tabbed First Team All-Mountain West Conference from 2008-10.

This is Anae's third All-Pac-12 Team honor and fourth overall conference postseason selection after being named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team in 2014.

Anae and Luafalemana become the first Utah duo to earn consecutive all-conference honors in back-to-back seasons since Kim Turner and Sylva Strzinkova were both honored in 2001 and 2002.

This marks the first time that four Utah players have been named to an all-conference team since 2010 when Bartkowiak, Keisha Fisher, Morgan Odale and Erin Redd-Brandon were each named All-MWC players.

PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC HONORS

Utah volleyball student-athletes Brianna Doehrmann, Bailey Choy and Berkeley Oblad have each been named to the 2017 Pac-12 All-Academic Team, the league office announced on Thursday.

Doehrmann, a sophomore libero/defensive specialist for the Utes earned first team honors, Choy, a sophomore setter for the squad, was named a second team honoree and Oblad, a junior middle blocker, was tabbed honorable mention. Oblad earns her second straight all-academic honor, while Doehrmann and Choy earn the honor for the first time in their careers.

Doehrmann ranks second on the team with 346 digs on the year, but her 3.30 digs per set average ranks first on the squad and ninth in the Pac-12. She registered 10-plus digs in 18 matches and led the team with 20-plus digs in two matches on the season, which included a career-high 30 digs against UCLA back on Oct. 20. Doehrmann became the first Ute to register at least 30 digs in a match since 2008.

Utah has had at least one Pac-12 first team selection dating back to 2012. At least two Utah players have earned all-academic honors every season since joining the league in 2011.

Choy ranks first on the team and fifth in the Pac-12 with 1,130 assists. She ranks seventh in the conference with 9.50 assists per set and helped lead Utah to a conference-best 13.71 assists per set as a team. She totaled 50 assists or more in five matches this season, which includes a season-high 54 assists that she recorded twice this season.

Choy, who became just the eighth player in school history to eclipse the 2,000 career assists mark earlier this season, was also named a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection. She is currently on the Academic All-American ballot.

Oblad tallied 277 kills and ranked second on the team - 10th in the Pac-12 - with a .316 hitting percentage. She tallied 134 total blocks and a 1.13 blocks per set average on the year. She totaled eight blocks or more in a team-high three matches this season.

THREE UTES NAMED AVCA ALL-PACIFIC SOUTH REGION SELECTIONS

Utah seniors Adora Anae and Tawanee Luafalemana, along with junior Berkeley Oblad, have each been named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association All-Pacific South Region Team, the AVCA announced today. Anae and Luaefalemana were both named first team selections, while Obald was tabbed honorable mention.

In addition to her second straight first team all-region honor, Anae was also named the region's Player of the Year, becoming the first Ute to earn AVCA Regional POY honors. This also marks the first time since 2008 that at least two players earned AVCA all-region honors and it is the first time to have at least three players named to the team since 2006, when Utah had five player selections.

UTAH MATCHES SCHOOL RECORD WITH THREE ALL-AMERICANS IN ONE SEASON

Senior Adora Anae was named a first-team All-American, while senior Tawnee Luafalemana and junior Berkeley Oblad both earned honorable mention All-American honors by the American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA), the organization announced today.

This marks just the second time in school history that three Utah players have earned All-America honors by the AVCA in one season and first time since 2006 (Airial Salvo, second team; Whitney Webb, third team; Emillie Toone, honorable mention).

Anae becomes Utah's first-ever first-team All-American selection, while the trio combined to become the program's 11th, 12th and 13th All-American selections overall. Anae also became just the second player in school history to earn All-American honors for a second time, joining Toone, who was also tabbed an honorable mention

All-American in 2008.

Anae, who was named the AVCA All-Pacific South Region Player of the Year this past week, led the team this season with 547 kills, a 4.38 kills/set average, while ranking second on the team with 395 digs. She also tallied 22 service aces, which ranks second on the squad. Anae tallied 10+ kills in 32 of 33 matches this season, while also notching a team-high 22 double-doubles. Midway through the season she set Utah's all-time career kills record, surpassing former All-American Kim Turner's total of 1,620 career kills. The Punaluu, Hawaii, native was tabbed AVCA's National Player of the Week back on Oct. 10. Anae closes out her storied-career with the Utes ranking first all-time in kills (1,920) and attempts (4,915), while tying for first all-time in sets played (483). She ranks third all-time in digs (1,319) and is tied for seventh all-time in matches played (128).

Luafalemana, who was an AVCA first-team All-Pacific South Region selection, was Utah's leader with 152 total blocks on the season, which included a team-leading 22 solo blocks. She also led the squad with a .368 hitting percentage, which ranks as the program's third-best single-season hitting percentage. She posted 260 kills, a 1.98 kills/set average and totaled 55 digs. The Carson, Calif., native earned Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honors back on Sept. 4. Luafalemana finished her two-year career with the Utes notching 522 kills and 284 total blocks. She also posted a career .347 hitting percentage, which ranks first all-time in career hitting proficiency.

Oblad, who earned honorable mention All-Pacific South Region accolades, ranked second on the team with 142 total blocks on the year. She also ranked second on the team with a .318 hitting percentage. She totaled 300 kills and a 2.29 kills/set average. The Henderson, Nev., native was a two-time Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week honoree, earning the selection on both Sept. 11 and Oct. 9. Oblad will head into her senior year next season with 711 kills, 164 digs and 323 total blocks.

DROP AND GIVE ME 20

Utah eclipsed the 20-win mark for the second straight season and for the fourth time in the past five years. The Utes have totaled at least 20 wins on the season, 22 different times overall, with 17 of those 20-win seasons coming under head coach Beth Launiere.

POLL TALK

The Utah volleyball team has been ranked No. 11 in the final 2017 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) poll, the organization announced on Monday.

The No. 11 ranking marks the program's best finish in the AVCA poll, surpassing the previous No. 15 ranking it recorded back in both 2001 and 2006. The No. 11 ranking is Utah's highest ranking in the poll overall, since coming in at No. 11 back on Nov. 27, 2006.

Utah earned an AVCA Top-25 ranking every week this season, which began with a No. 23 preseason ranking. Following a No. 22 ranking in the first weekly poll of the season, Utah would rank no lower than No. 18 in the poll. The Utes ranked as high as No. 12 in the poll back on Oct. 16 and Oct. 23.

Utah (24-10) finished the season with 20-plus wins for a second straight season and for the fourth time in the past five years. The Utes went 13-7 in Pac-12 play and finished in sole possession of fourth place in the conference standings. The 13 conference wins marked the most victories and the fourth place finish was the program's highest finish since joining the league.

The Utes earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Tournament, earning the No. 11 overall seed – the program's all-time highest seeing in the tournament. Utah won the Salt Lake City Sub-Regional, defeating Cleveland State and Purdue, and then advanced to its third-ever Sweet 16 appearance. Utah fell in the first round of the Stanford Regional, falling in five sets to No. 2-ranked and No. 6-seeded Texas.

Utah was one of five Pac-12 Conference teams ranked in the final AVCA poll (Stanford, 4; USC, 7; UCLA, 14; Washington, 15; and Colorado, 19).

20-20 VISION

Senior Adora Anae totaled 24 kills and a season-high 20 digs in Utah's match against Washington a few weeks back. Anae tallied at least 20 kills and at least 20 kills in a single match for the fifth time of her career and for the first time since notching 25 kills/25 digs at USC back on Oct. 28, 2016. She also tallied 20-20 efforts against Arizona (23 K-21 D, 9/12/15), California (27 K-25 D, 10/18/15) and Seton Hall (21 K-25 D, 9/12/15).

Anae and former All-American Shelly Sommerfeldt are the only two players in Utah history to record at least 20 kills and 20 digs in a single match. Anae is the only Ute to do so multiple times in her career.

UTAH VOLLEYBALL STATISTICALLY SPEAKING

Utah closed out the regular season leading the Pac-12 and ranking 10th in the nation with 13.71 assists per set, first in the Pac-12 and 13th in the nation with 14.39 kills per set, first in the Pac-12 and seventh in the nation with 1,631 total assists, and ranking first in the Pac-12 and ninth in the nation with 1,713 total kills.

Senior Adora Anae ranked fourth in the league and 24th in the nation with 484 total kills, while her 4.28 kills per set average ranked fourth in the conference and 22nd in the nation. Senior Tawnee Luafalemana's 143 total blocks ranked fourth in the league and 35th in the nation and her 3.64 hitting percentage was fourth-best in the Pac-12 and 55th in the nation.

SEEING DOUBLE

Senior Adora Anae tallied a team-high 22 double-doubles overall on the season, while sophomore Bailey Choy tallied a career-high 14 double-doubles on the year. Freshman Camryn Machado ranked third on the team with a pair of double-doubles, while junior Berkeley Oblad, freshman Dani Barton, freshman Shannon Scully and freshman Kenzie Koerber tallied one double-double each on season.

Barton, who registered her double-double with 10 kills and 11 blocks, became the first Utah player to notch a double-double with kills and blocks since Erin Redd-Brandon did so back in 2013. Oblad also notched her double-double with 15 kills and 11 blocks, giving Utah its first player duo to record a double-double in the same season via kills/blocks since Lori Baird and Emilie Toone did so back in 2006.

Utah's total of seven different players with at least one double-double on the year is one shy of the all-time high, as eight different Utes tallied at least one double-double back in 2005. This season's total is the highest number of players to record a double-double in a match since six different players notched double-doubles back in 2014.

UTES AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

Utah went 6-9 against AVCA top-25 ranked teams this season. All nine losses came to teams ranked No. 19 or higher (No. 14 Kentucky, No. 14 BYU, No. 12 Oregon, No. 19 USC, No. 15 Oregon, No. 11 Washington, No. 17 USC, No. 18 UCLA, No. 4 Stanford and No. 2 Texas). Five of the nine losses came in five sets.

PAC-12 WEEKLY HONORS

Utah had four different players honored by the Pac-12 this season. Senior Tawnee Luafalemana was named the league's defensive player of the week back on Sept. 4, while freshman Dani Barton was tabbed Pac-12 Freshman of the Week on the same date. Junior Berkeley Oblad followed with Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week on Sept. 11 and again on Oct. 9. Senior Adora Anae was named Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 9, as well.

ANAE ADDS TO WEEKLY AWARDS WITH NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Senior Adora Anae earned a pair national honors on Oct. 10, as she was named both the Sports Imports/AVCA and espnW National Player of the Week. Anae, who was tabbed the Pac-12 Volleyball Offensive Player of the Week that week as well, becomes just the second player in program history to receive the AVCA's weekly national honor and the first since Brenda Barton-Whicker back on Sept. 15, 1997. She is the first player to earn espnW national honors.

UTAH VOLLEYBALL

NCAA TOURNAMENT SUCCESS

• With 14 appearances in the past 20 seasons, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament.

• The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

• The 2001 and 2008 teams both went 2-1 in the tournament to reach the Sweet 16. Utah advanced to its third Sweet 16 in school history in 2017.

• In 2001, the Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds at Crimson Court. In 2008, Utah swept both Furman and Clemson during the first and second rounds in Clemson, S.C. The Utes downed Cleveland State (3-0) and Purdue (3-1) in the Salt Lake City Regional in 2017.

• In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory (26-30, 25-30, 30-20, 30-24, 15-12).

• Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid. The Utes would go onto host its third regional overall, and first since 2005, after earning the No. 11 overall seed in 2017.

The 1998 Utah Volleyball team made the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament, which was held in Lincoln, Neb.

The 2001 Utah Utes celebrate after a 3-1 win over Utah State, advancing the squad to the program's first-ever NCAA Sweet 16 berth.

Utah beats Clemson on its home court to set up match with Washington

THE SALT LAKE TRIBUNE

CLEMSON, S.C. — Next stop for the streaking Utah women's volleyball team — a Sweet 16 date against the Washington Huskies in Seattle on Friday.

The Utes will face another team on its home court. However, it is a task that should not faze Utah, which defeated Clemson on its home court Saturday, 25-21, 29-24 and 25-21, to advance to the NCAA's Sweet 16 for the second time in school history.

"Our three strikes were amazing tonight," said Utah coach Beth Launiere, in reference to her No. 10-ranked and 12th-seeded Utes (26-5) won for the 11 time in a row and the 19th time in its last 20 matches. "I am so proud of that team and what they accomplished."

Utah's setters — Kathryn Haynie, Lori Baird and Emily Toone — combined for 36 assists, as the Utes have yet to lose a set in the tournament. They defeated Furman in three games Friday.

Haynie's 14 kills came on just 19 swings for a career-high .632 hitting percentage. She also had 11 digs.

"Haynie has been a leader all year," Toone said. "She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up. Haynie took some pressure off us in the middle which was a great help."

Clemson (20-10) actually outblocked the taller, more physical Utes, 14-6. Utah, however, held the Tigers to a .140 hitting percentage.

The Utah women's volleyball team storms the court after beating host Clemson.

Utah was down early in the second game, but rallied.

"We are obviously disappointed," Clemson coach Juliene Jordan Hoover said. "It was a tough loss to a big Utah team who was very tough and aggressive. They did a great job of keeping us out of our system tonight.

"I feel like it kept coming down to passing. That stretch [in Game 2] was critical to our game, especially playing a team like this it is really tough to go down 0-2."

The Utes take on fifth-seeded Washington in the Seattle Regional final Friday. The Huskies are 30-5 and earned two 3-0 sweeps in the first two rounds of the tournament over Portland State and Santa Clara. Utah also defeated Santa Clara this season.

"[Kathryn] Haynie has been a leader all year. She knew it was going to be a tough match and she stepped it up."

How Sweet It Is

Utes oust Ags to reach NCAA round of 16

BY PATRICK KINAHAN

The checklist is growing shorter with each goal the Utah women's volleyball team accomplishes.

The latest objective achieved came Friday at Crimson Court, where the Utes beat Utah State 30-21, 30-18, 26-30, 30-22 in an NCAA Tournament second-round match. Utah, which advances to its first Sweet 16, learns its next destination today after remaining second-round play is completed.

In January, one month after their third consecutive second-round NCAA Tournament loss, the Utes set goals for this season. The most important were obvious: win the Mountain West tournament and be one of the final 16 NCAA teams still playing.

Scratch off both for the No. 11 Utes, who beat Colorado State in the conference tournament championship two weeks ago in a nerve-fraying five-game match. Utah bowed to rally from a two-game deficit that day.

"It's not always easy to set goals and achieve them," said coach Beth Launiere. "We just achieved a really big one."

Utah (25-6) was just really too big for the Aggies (20-11) to handle, relying on a strong front line. the Utes had a .367 hitting percentage to Utah State's .189.

Kim Turner and Kalyssa Ellett each hit better than .500. Erin Cartwright had Utah State's best mark at .353.

Jackie Morrill led Utah with 20 assists. Kelsie Kartchner followed with 16.

Allee Geddes, Lenka Urbanova and Adrianne Bradley-Drake each had at least 10 digs for Utah.

"We had a lot of good opportunities and digs that gave the middle attack a good chance," Turner

UTAH VOLLEYBALL FACILITIES

CRIMSON COURT

Utah's Crimson Court is one of the finest volleyball-only practice facilities in the nation.

One of the most intimidating competition venues in the country from 2000 through 2012, Utah racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span. Overall from 1994 through 2013, the Utes went 189-65 (.750) at Crimson Court with a 113-37 (.753) mark against league foes

The court was built prior to the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Crimson Court was a launching pad for 10 of the Utes' NCAA Tournament appearances and also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

HUNTSMAN CENTER

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home venue advantage for Utah's basketball and gymnastics teams. And during the fall of 2013, it became the permanent home for the Ute volleyball team.

In its first full season in the Huntsman Center, the Utah volleyball team went 8-5. The Utes won the 2013 Utah Classic with wins over Utah State, Fairfield and Northern Iowa along with wins over Colorado, Washington State, Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State.

For a structure in its 43rd year of existence, a feeling of newness still pervades underneath the silver dome. But don't let the pristine picture fool you. As serene as the Huntsman Center may look empty, when the Utes are on the floor and fans are in the stands, the place transforms into a madhouse.

A landmark on the U. campus, the Jon M. Huntsman Center is the perfect place to watch a sporting event. With 15,000 chair seats assuring a great view from anywhere in the arena, the Huntsman Center is the largest venue in the Pac-12 Conference.

From its perch at the southeast end of campus, the Huntsman Center stands sentinel over the University of Utah. Inside the facility are athletic coaches' and administrative offices and locker rooms. The enormous reflective silver dome is the largest of its kind in the world. Underground tunnels stretching 2,220 feet connect the arena with the four-building physical education complex.

The famous "steel cloud," a huge mass of steel and concrete, hangs from the dome's interior and holds the scoreboard, and the public address and lighting systems. The building was engineered in such a way that the cloud actually holds the dome in place.

Prior to the 2011-12 season, the entire Huntsman Center playing floor was replaced. A new, $1.3 million scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. The new scoreboard features an LED ring by Optotech around the bottom and four LCD video screens, which provide brighter, clearer pictures than ever before seen in the Huntsman Center. The scoreboard also features a player stat board and is 1.5 times bigger than its predecessor.

Salt Lake City, home to the University of Utah and the state's capital city, offers an unrivaled blend of metropolitan life and recreational opportunities. With 186,440 residents, Salt Lake City is the largest city in the state and its metro population of 1,124,197 ranks in the top 50 in the United States. Yet Salt Lake City maintains the charm of a small western city.

Employment opportunities, culture, quality of life and recreation are some of the reasons why Salt Lake City is consistently named one of the nation's best cities. In the June 2010 issue of Kiplinger's Personal Finance Magazine, Salt Lake City was No. 5 on its list of the "10 Best Cities for the Next Decade." Forbes Magazine ranked Salt Lake City the third-best big city for jobs and fourth-best city for tech jobs in May 2012. The magazine also recognized Utah as the "Best State for Business and Careers" for the second straight year in 2011. Men's Fitness magazine named Salt Lake the "Fittest City in the Nation" in 2009.

Nestled between the Wasatch and Oquirrh Mountain ranges and the Great Salt Lake, the city is located in one of the most picturesque places on earth. The lowest point within city boundaries is 4,210 feet near the Great Salt Lake, and the highest is Grandview Peak at 9,410 feet. The Great Salt Lake (48 miles wide and 90 miles long) is the world's second largest saltwater lake and the largest lake in the western United States.

The city is the cultural, financial, educational, technological, commercial and communications hub of the Intermountain West. Utah was named the most technologically advanced state in the 2008 Digital States Survey and rated as one of the top 10 most socially networked cities in America. Salt Lake is also home to world-renowned medical and technology industries.

Cultural and ethnic activities flourish in Salt Lake City and its vibrant downtown features dining, shopping, music and ethnic festivals, art galleries, professional symphony, opera, theater and dance.

The annual Sundance Film Festival, which is the largest independent film festival in the U.S., attracts movie stars, celebrities and thousands of film buffs to the area every year. According to P3/Production Update Magazine, Utah is one of the "10 Best States in the Nation for Film."

Professional sports franchises in Salt Lake City include the Utah Jazz (NBA), Real Salt Lake (Major League Soccer), Salt Lake Bees (AAA baseball), Utah Blaze (Arena Football) and Utah Grizzlies (East Coast Hockey League).

THE UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

Ranked among the top 100 universities in the world, the University of Utah is renowned for its research expertise, academic performance and athletic prowess. The U., which has earned a top-tier ranking from the Academic Ranking of World Universities for eight consecutive years, became a member of the Pac-12 Conference on July 1, 2011.

Founded in 1850, the University of Utah encompasses 1,500 acres in the foothills of the towering Wasatch Mountains. Located just minutes from downtown Salt Lake City and world-class ski resorts, its campus combines an eclectic mix of teaching and research facilities in a park-like setting of trees, fountains, flowering malls and pedestrian walkways with incomparable views of the Salt Lake valley.

Home to a student population of over 30,000, the U. offers some 100 undergraduate and 90 graduate majors. Many of the U.'s programs are nationally ranked, including law, pharmacy, architecture, business, engineering and dance. Students come from all 50 states and many foreign countries.

Utah ranks among the top public research universities in the nation, with particular distinction in medicine, genetics and engineering. In 2009-10, the University received a record-setting $451 million in external funding for research. University of Utah geneticist Mario R. Capecchi, one of many acclaimed faculty members, received the 2007 Nobel Prize in Physiology/Medicine for his work on gene targeting.

In each of the past two years, the University has led the nation in the number of spin-off companies started with University-developed research or technology. The U. has launched 125 new startups over the past six years. The U. was honored at the 2012 Utah Genius Awards for most U.S. patents of any company (49), and faculty member Stephen Jacobsen of the Department of Mechanical Engineering won the lifetime achievement award.

In 2010, University of Utah Health Care was ranked No. 1 in quality in the nation among academic medical centers. The Eccles Institute of Human Genetics is one of several innovative medical programs at the U. Others include the Huntsman Cancer Institute, the Moran Eye Center and the Brain Institute. The U.'s David Eccles School of Business has joined the U.S. News & World Report list of the top 10 most-popular business schools in the nation.

The U. is also noted for its work in technology and computer sciences. The University's School of Computing was founded in 1965, and began a pioneering legacy in computer graphics and visualization that continues today.

A lively residential living experience is provided in the beautiful Heritage Commons, which served as the Athletes Village for the 2002 Olympic Winter Games. Utah students enjoy unparalleled recreational activities, from skiing and snowboarding at any of nine world-class resorts in nearby canyons, to backpacking, mountain biking, fly fishing and river running.

The U.'s location in the largest city in the Intermountain West, with a metro population of over one million, allows for an urban experience in a spectacular natural setting. The U. is home to the state's natural history and fine arts museums, and well as the Pioneer Theatre Company.
